CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:
Alejandro CABRERA-Gallegos

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On January 12, 2008, Border Patrol Agent A. Rodriguez responded to a seismic intrusion device activation in an area known as the "162 Trail". This area is located approximately two miles west of the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry and approximately 500 yards north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary.

Once in the area Agent Rodriguez searched the area and observed an individual, who was later identified as the defendant Alejandro CABRERA-Gallegos, lying in brush. Agent Rodriguez identified himself as a Border Patrol Agent and questioned the defendant as to his country of citizenship and nationality. The defendant admitted to being a citizen and national of Mexico without any immigration documents that would allow him to enter or remain in the United States legally. The defendant was arrested at approximately 9:20 P.M. and transported to the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station for further processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on January 5, 2008 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

The defendant was advised of his Miranda Rights, which he stated he understood and was willing to answer questions without having an attorney present. The defendant stated that he is a citizen and national of Mexico not in possession of any immigration documents that would allow him to be or remain in the United States legally.
